Boardman Architecture Honor Fellowship

This scholarship was established in 1989 by Mr. and Mrs. Clarence J. Boardman, Jr., for undergraduate architectural students who have demonstrated a commitment to excellence.

Eligibility Requirements:
1. Architecture major
2. Minimum 3.0 GPA
3. Undergraduate or graduate student
4. Demonstrated financial need
5. Selection is based on quality of Design Studio performance, overall architectural studies performance, and general university studies performance

For more information:
Visit the College of Arts and Architecture’s Scholarship website at http://www.coaa.uncc.edu/Academics/School-of-architecture/Students/Scholarship-information