D.W. Colvard Scholarship for Merit

The Colvard Scholarship was established in 1976 in recognition of Dr. D. W. Colvard, first chancellor of UNC Charlotte from 1966 to 1978, and his wife, Martha. The Colvard Scholarship is designed to attract students with great potential to the University. Applicants’ roles as leaders and their service to school and community are weighed carefully in the selection of Colvard scholars.

Eligibility Requirements:

Scholarships for Merit are administered through the Levine Scholars Program. To be considered, current high school seniors must receive a nomination from their high school counselor. Once nominated, nominees will receive access to the supplemental application via email.
