Epley Associates Scholarship in Public Relations

This scholarship has been endowed by the Joe S. Epley Scholarship Foundation, which supports exceptional students who have chosen public relations as the field of their professional careers. Mr. Epley, APR, Fellow PRSA, is the retired founder and CEO of Epley Associates/Public Relations, a past President of the Public Relations Society of America, and a founding partner of WorldCom, a global consortium of independent public relations firms.

Eligibility Requirements:
1. Communications major with a concentration in Public Relations
2. Junior or senior
3. Minimum 2.5 cumulative GPA
4. Preference given to students earning a Certificate in International Public Relations

For more information:
Visit the College of Communication Studies’ Scholarship website

http://communications.uncc.edu/Scholarships/